AIRPORT CONCESSIONAIRE MISSION YOGURT, INC. CONTINUES LONGSTANDING TRADITION OF HOLIDAY CHARITABLE GIVING

Mission Offers Thanksgiving Meal to all Denver International Airport Employees, Continues Annual Charitable Donation to The Sam Sandos Christmas Basket Program

DENVER – November 11, 2014 – Today, Denver-based airport concessionaire Mission Yogurt, Inc. announced plans to offer a full Thanksgiving dinner to all Denver International Airport (DIA) employees who will be working, and thus not with their families, on one of the busiest travel days of the year. Complimentary to employees of Mission Yogurt, Inc., all other DIA employees can enjoy a traditional holiday spread for $8, or for free, with a donation of any unwrapped toy to Denver International Airport's annual children's holiday party. Meals will be available Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 27, at Timberline Steaks & Grille in DIA's C Concourse, from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Continuing the holiday spirit, Mission will also donate 2,000 turkeys and chickens to The Sam Sandos Christmas Basket Program for the eighth consecutive year. The Sam Sandos Christmas Basket Program was formed in 1978 as means to provide local families facing hard times during the holiday season with assistance. It has since grown into a program that builds and delivers food baskets complete with a fresh poultry item and complete assortment of holiday trimmings to families in need.

"Airport employees give up time with their families to work during the holidays, so that others can travel to spend time with theirs," says Mission Yogurt, Inc. president and owner Rod Tafoya. "Offering a Thanksgiving meal to these hardworking individuals is one way for us to show our appreciation. Donating to Sam Sandos is Mission Yogurt's way of extending that holiday spirit to the local community."
